

Audit Committee Charter

1.0 Function of the Audit Committee

- 1.1 The Audit Committee ("Committee") of Westports Holdings Berhad ("Company") will assist the Board of Directors ("Board") in fulfilling the Board's responsibilities with respect to its oversight responsibilities. The Committee will review and monitor the integrity of the Company's and its subsidiaries' ("Group") financial reporting process, its management of risk and internal control system, its audit process as well as compliance with legal and regulatory matters, its own code of business conduct and such other matters that may be specifically delegated to the Committee by the Board from time to time.
- 1.2 Although the Committee is delegated the powers and responsibilities as set out in this Charter by the Board pursuant to the Constitution of the Company, it is not the responsibility of the Committee to plan or conduct audits on the Group's financial statements. This responsibility remains with management who is to ensure that the Group's financial statements are complete and accurate, and are in compliance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Group's external auditor is responsible for conducting audit(s) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards on consolidated and other statutory financial statements. The Group's internal auditors should carry out their functions according to the standards set by recognised professional bodies and the head of the internal audit function should report directly to the Committee.
- 1.3 The Committee is authorised to conduct investigations, to resolve disputes between Management and the external auditor, if any, and to require Management to disclose all information as the Committee deems appropriate.

2.0 Composition

Requirements

- 2.1 The Committee shall be appointed by the Board from among its members, comprising no fewer than three (3) directors, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors.
- 2.2 The Board shall appoint the Chairman of the Committee who shall be an independent non-executive director and not Chairman of the Board.
- 2.3 Each member of the Committee should be financially literate and must be able to read, analyse, interpret and understand financial statements, including the Group's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement in order to effectively discharge their functions.
- 2.4 At least one (1) member of the Committee must meet the following required qualifications:-
- 2.4.1 be a member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants; or
 - 2.4.2 if he is not a member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants, he must have at least three (3) years' working experience and he must have passed the examinations specified in Part I of the 1st Schedule of the Accountants Act, 1967 or he must be a member of one of the associations of accountants specified in Part II of the 1st Schedule of the Accountants Act, 1967; or
 - 2.4.3 fulfils such other requirements as prescribed or approved by Bursa Securities, where applicable.

Audit Committee Charter

In determining the required qualification, the Board will also observe any other relevant requirements that may be announced by Bursa Securities as a directive from time to time, where applicable.

Appointment

- 2.5 The Board, on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, shall appoint the members of the Committee.
- 2.6 Chairman of the Board and alternate directors shall not be appointed as members of the Committee.
- 2.7 For the engagement of a former audit partner as a member of the Committee, there is to be a cooling-off period of at least three (3) years to be observed before he or she is able to be appointed as a member of the Committee.
- 2.8 Any vacancy due to retirement or resignation of a Committee member, or for any other reason which results in a change of the composition of the Committee that does not comply with the composition of the Committee as required herein, must be filled within three (3) months of that event.

3.0 Authority of the Committee

- 3.1 The Committee is duly authorised by the Board to:
 - 3.1.1 investigate any activities within its charter;
 - 3.1.2 seek any information that it requires from any employee of the Group and to be provided with full and unrestricted access to such information;
 - 3.1.3 maintain direct communication channels with the external and internal auditors on a continuous basis in order to be kept informed of matters affecting the Group;
 - 3.1.4 obtain external legal or independent professional advice or invite outsiders with relevant experience to attend the Committee meetings and to advise the Committee, if the Committee deems it appropriate to carry out its functions under this Charter;
 - 3.1.5 have access to the Group's resources, at the Group's expense, to perform the Committee's duties;
 - 3.1.6 convene meetings with the internal and external auditors (excluding the attendance of other directors and management), if necessary; and
 - 3.1.7 recommend steps or proposed courses of action, where required, to the Board on matters arising from the discharge of the Committee's duties and responsibilities.

Audit Committee Charter

4.0 Responsibilities of the Committee

The Committee shall:

Financial Reporting and Compliance

4.1 Review Financial Statements:

4.1.1 Monitor and review with appropriate officers of the Group and the external auditors, the annual, interim and any other related formal financial statements and announcements of the Group prior to approval of the Board and public release thereof, focusing on:

- a) the quality and integrity of the financial statements, including but not limited to the clarity and completeness of the financial disclosures therein;
- b) significant matters highlighted including financial reporting issues, significant judgements made by management, significant and unusual events or transactions and how these matters are addressed;
- c) the extent to which financial statements are affected by any unusual transactions;
- d) changes in accounting policies and practices, and implementation of such changes;
- e) compliance with applicable approved accounting standards and regulatory requirements;
- f) significant adjustments resulting from the audit;
- g) major judgmental areas;
- h) the going concern assumptions; and
- i) the Board's statement on internal control systems.

4.1.2 Discuss among the Committee members, without the presence of the Management or the external auditors if deemed necessary, the financial information obtained.

4.1.3 Discuss the impact of any proposed changes in accounting principles on future financial statements.

4.2 Review Other Accounting, Audit and Financial Matters: Review such other matters in relation to the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices and procedures of the Group as the Committee may, at its own discretion, deem desirable in connection with the review functions described above.

4.3 Review Related Party Transactions and Conflict of Interest Situations: Review and report to the Board any material related party transaction and conflict of interest situations that arose, persist or may arise within the Group including transaction, procedure or cause of conduct that raises question of management integrity and measures taken to resolve, eliminate or mitigate such conflicts including to review and monitor recurrent related party transactions, entered into by the Group to ensure:

Audit Committee Charter

- 4.3.1 that the transactions have been conducted on the Group's normal commercial terms at an arm's length basis, on terms which are not more favourable to the related party than those generally available to the public;
 - 4.3.2 that the internal control procedures relating to such transactions are sufficient and have been complied with;
 - 4.3.3 compliance with the Listing Requirements and Practice Notes of Bursa Securities that are in force from time to time; and
 - 4.3.4 that the Group has adequate procedures and processes in place to monitor and track related party transactions and to review these processes.
- 4.4 Review Other Matters:
- 4.4.1 to review compliance with relevant laws and regulations, generally and reporting matters that are not satisfactorily resolved, that result in a breach of requirements;
 - 4.4.2 to execute the request by the Board to conduct investigations into any issue pertaining to the management of the Company;
 - 4.4.3 to review the Company's code of ethics and monitor the compliance thereof;
 - 4.4.4 to review sensitive payments, if any, made by the Company;
 - 4.4.5 to implement other necessary duties as mutually agreed by the Committee and the Board or any other authorities which are empowered by law or regulated by any government authority;
 - 4.4.6 to review and update the Charter of the Committee from time to time; and
 - 4.4.7 to prepare an Audit Committee Report at the end of the financial year for inclusion in the Annual Report pursuant to the Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities.

Internal Control

- 4.5 Review Systems of Internal Controls: Review with members of Senior Management of the Group, the external auditors, and, where necessary, any other relevant persons, the effectiveness, adequacy and integrity of the Group's internal controls including information technology security and control, the Group's financial, auditing and accounting of the organisations and personnel and the Group's policies and compliance procedures with respect to business practices and to assist management in setting up the appropriate procedures and internal controls.
- 4.6 Review Systems and/or Processes to manage fraud: Review with members of Senior Management of the Group, the external auditors and, where necessary any other relevant persons, the procedures in place by management to prevent and detect fraud including cyber fraud.

Audit Committee Charter

Internal Audit

- 4.7 Review of the Internal Audit Function: Review the internal audit department to ensure its activities are performed independently and with impartiality, proficiency and due professional care. The Committee should recommend to the Board the appointment of key personnel of the Group's internal audit function, the authority and the areas of responsibility of the internal audit function. The Committee should also review any appraisal, determine or access the remit of the internal audit function, as well as evaluating the competencies and capabilities of the Group internal audit's personnel in performing their duties taking into account the qualification and experience of the auditor, level of independence with the auditee, and the ability to freely communicate between the head internal auditor and senior management.
- 4.8 Review Internal Audit Plans: Review, evaluate and approve the plans for and adequacy of the scope of their audit activities/programmes including the adequacy of competency and resources to carry out its function and to monitor the implementation of the internal audit activities/programmes to ensure sufficient scope is covered during the audit.
- 4.9 Review Internal Audit Reports: Review with members of Senior Management of the Group, any periodic reports of the audit activities, key findings and recommendations including its investigations as well as the recommended course of actions to be taken by the Management, Management's response to the recommendations and ensure that appropriate action is taken on their recommendations. This would include the extent of assistance and cooperation given by the Group's Management to support the activities of the internal audit function, as well as endorsing the disciplinary action to be taken against any employee involved in any misconduct as reported by the internal audit.
- 4.10 Review Internal Audit Function: Monitor effectiveness and review the performance of members of the internal audit function and provide appraisals of their performance including compliance with the Institute of Internal Auditors' Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing, to management and, where appropriate, the Board.
- 4.11 Approve the appointment or termination of key personnel or senior Internal Audit members: Recommend to the Board to approve the appointment or termination of key personnel of the Group internal audit function and take cognisance of resignations of senior members as well as to provide the resigning staff an opportunity to submit his/her reasons for resigning.

External Audit

- 4.12 Nomination, Resignation and Dismissal of External Auditors: Recommend to the Board annually and at other appropriate times, and through the Chairman, to the shareholders for approval at the annual general meeting, the firm to be retained or re-appointed as the Group's external auditors, the terms of engagement and remuneration to be paid to the external auditors in respect of the audit services provided. This would include an annual review of the effectiveness and competence of the external auditor, the qualifications, expertise and the adequacy of staffing/resources provided by the external auditor. In considering the appointment/re-appointment of the external auditors, the Committee is to consider among others:-
- a) the adequacy of the experience and resources of the accounting firm;
 - b) the persons assigned to the audit;

Audit Committee Charter

- c) the accounting firm's audit engagements;
- d) the size and complexity of the listed issuer's group being audited; and
- e) the number and experience of supervisory and professional staff assigned to the particular audit.

The Committee will review and report to the Board and subsequently to the shareholders, any proposed resignation (including letter of resignation from the external auditors) or dismissal of the external auditors and whether there is reason (supported by grounds) to believe that the external auditor is not suitable for reappointment together with the Committee's recommendation, including the payment of external auditors fees, termination of service of the external auditor and enquiring into staffing and competence of the external auditor in performing their work. Where the external auditor is removed from office or has issued a notice of their intention to do so, the Committee shall concurrently forward to Bursa Securities and the Registrar of Companies, a copy of any written representations or written explanations of the resignation made by the external auditors.

4.13 Annual assessment of External Auditors: The Company shall at each annual general meeting appoint or re-appoint the External Auditors of the Company, and External Auditors so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company. In discharging this duty, the Committee shall carry out an annual assessment on the performance and may request the Chief Executive Officer and/or Internal Auditors to join the assessment, on the suitability, objectivity, performance and the independence of the External Auditors, inter-alia:-

- (a) Service quality;
- (b) Sufficiency of resources;
- (c) Communication with the Management;
- (d) Independence, Objectivity and Professionalism;
- (e) Ability to meet deadlines in providing services and responding to issues in a timely manner as contemplated in the external audit plan;
- (f) The nature and extent of the non-audit services provided by the External Auditors and fees paid for such services relative to the audit fee;
- (g) The information presented in the Annual Transparency Report of the audit firm. If the audit firm is not required to issue an Annual Transparency Report, the AC is encouraged to engage the audit firm on matters typically covered in Annual Transparency Report including the audit firm's governance and leadership structure as well as measures undertaken by the audit firm to uphold audit quality and manage risks;
- (h) whether there are procedures in place to ensure that there is no threat to the objectivity and independence of the audit arising from the provision of non-audit services or tenure of the External Auditors; undertake follow-up measures, where required.

The external audit firm shall rotate the audit partner on engagement upon reaching the cumulative time-on period of seven (7) years, subject to the requirements as stipulated in the By-Laws of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants, as amended from time to time and any re-enactment thereof.

4.14 Review suitability and Independence of External Auditors: Review the information provided by management and the external auditors relating to the independence of such firm, including, among other things:

Audit Committee Charter

- 4.14.1 external audit firm's compliance with Malaysian regulations and ethical guidance relating to rotation of audit partner, the level of fees that the Group pays in proportion to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related regulatory requirements;
- 4.14.2 assurance that representatives of the external audit firm have no family, financial, employment, investment or any other business relationship with the Group, other than that in the normal course of business;
- 4.14.3 the employment of former employees of the external audit firm in key management positions within the Group; and/or
- 4.14.4 the nature of the non-audit services provided by the external auditors and fees paid for such services related to the audit fee and whether there are safeguards in place to ensure that there is no threat to the objectivity and independence of the audit arising from the provision of non-audit services or tenure of the external auditor.

The Committee is responsible for (1) ensuring that the external auditor submits on a periodic basis to the Committee a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the auditor and the Group, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 as attached in Appendix 1, modified as appropriate based on Malaysian guidelines for auditors independence; (2) actively engaging in dialogue with the external auditor with respect to any disclosed relationship or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the external auditor; and (3) taking, or recommending that the Board take, appropriate action, to oversee the independence of the external auditor.

- 4.15 Review of non-audit engagement: The Committee shall ensure that the provision of non-audit services by the external auditor complies with the policy on the provision of non-audit services by the external auditor to ensure that the objectivity and independence of the audit firm are not impaired. The policy provides guidance, but not limited to, the following:

- 4.15.1 The scope of the non-audit services, e.g.:

- The external auditor audits its own firm's work
- The external auditor is put in a role of an advocate for the Group
- The external auditor makes management decisions for the Group
- A mutuality of interest is created
- Any other ethical considerations deemed relevant

- 4.15.2 The External Auditors shall also observe and comply with the By-Laws of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants in connection with the provision of non-audit services, which also prohibit the provision of certain services including the following:-

- (i) Management consulting;
- (ii) Strategic decision;
- (iii) Policy and standard operating procedures documentation;
- (iv) Accounting and book keeping services;
- (v) Valuations services;
- (vi) Taxation services;
- (vii) Internal audit services;
- (viii) IT systems services;
- (ix) Litigation support services;
- (x) Recruitment services; and
- (xi) Corporate finance services.

Audit Committee Charter

All engagement of the External Auditors to provide non-audit services is subject to the approval/endorsement of the Committee before the services are rendered by them and its affiliates while taking into account the nature and extent of the non-audit services and the appropriateness of the level of fees, as detailed in the Non-Assurance Services Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures of the Company.

Management shall also obtain written assurance from the External Auditors that the independence of the External Auditors will not be impaired by the provision of non-audit services.

- 4.15.3 In the event that the non-audit fees paid to the Company's External Auditors, or a firm or corporation affiliated to the External Auditors' firm are significant (e.g. constitute 50% of the total amount of audit fees paid to the Company's External Auditors), the Company is required to state the details on the nature of non-audit services rendered in the Committee Report.
- 4.16 Review External Audit Plans: Review, in consultation with the external auditors their plans for, and the scope and cost effectiveness of their annual audit and other examinations, prior to the commencement of such activities. This should include the evaluation of the financial and audit reports, systems of internal accounting controls and risk management processes, to the extent performed as part of the external audit.
- 4.17 Conduct of External Audits: Review the assistance given by the Group and the Group's employees to the external auditors and ensure coordination where more than one (1) audit firm is involved and between the external and internal auditors.
- 4.18 Review the External Auditors' representations on their Quality Control Procedures and steps taken by the auditor to respond to changes in regulatory and other requisite requirements.
- 4.19 Review External Audit Results: Review with the external auditors, their findings and the report of their annual audit, or proposed report of their annual audit, the accompanying management letter and response, the report of their reviews of the Group's interim financials, and the problems and reservations arising, including significant audit adjustments, if any. The scope here will also include the reports on the results of such other examinations outside the course of the external auditors' normal audit procedures that the external auditors may from time to time undertake.
- 4.20 Review Recommendations of External Audit: Review with the members of senior management of the Group, recommendations made by the external auditors and such other matters including recommending the appropriate course of action to be taken by the management and monitoring the implementation of the course of action, as such persons or other officers of the Group may desire to bring to the attention of the Committee.

Whistleblowing

- 4.21 Review the procedures that the Group has implemented to address allegations made by whistleblowers, to ensure that there is proportionate and independent investigation of such allegations and that appropriate follow-up action is taken and brought to the attention of the Committee, where necessary.

Audit Committee Charter

Coordination

- 4.22 Ensure appropriate coordination between the audit plans of the Company's external auditors and the scope of the Group's internal audit programme.

Remediation Plan

- 4.23 Review the management's remediation plans on the inadequacies highlighted in the internal and external audit reports.

Procurement

- 4.24 Review procurement progress report in accordance with projects approved by the Board and compliance with procurement policy and procedure.

Strategic Investment

- 4.25 Review strategic investment decisions to align with the company's long-term financial, operational and sustainable goals.
- 4.26 Review the due diligence process and risks associated with the strategic investments.

5.0 Meetings of the Committee

- 5.1 The Chairman of the Committee will, in consultation with the other members of the Committee, the Group's external and internal auditors and the appropriate officers of the Group, be responsible for calling meetings of the Committee, establishing the agenda therefor and supervising the conduct thereof.
- 5.2 The Chairman of the Committee, Secretary of the Committee or the Head of Corporate Secretarial Affairs on the requisition of the members, shall at any time summon a meeting of the Committee by giving 3 days' advance notice or if the consent of all the members is obtained, by a shorter notice.
- 5.3 The Committee shall meet at least four (4) times during each financial year, or more frequently as it may determine necessary, to comply with its responsibilities as set forth herein. In order to form a quorum for a meeting of the Committee at least two (2) members must be present and no business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Committee unless a quorum is present. In the absence of the Chairman, the members present shall elect a Chairman for the meeting from amongst the members present.
- 5.4 A member of the Committee shall excuse himself/herself from the meeting during discussion or deliberations and abstain from voting on any matter which gives rise to an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest situation for the member. Where this causes insufficient directors to make up a quorum, the Committee has the right to appoint another director(s) who are not members of the Committee but meet the membership criteria to fulfil the quorum requirements.
- 5.5 Only the Chairman and the members are to be present at a meeting of the Committee. The Committee may, at its discretion, request Board members, any officer or employee of the Group or the Group's external legal counsel or external or internal auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.
- 5.6 The Committee may meet with management (including the Group Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer), the external or internal auditors and others in separate private sessions to discuss any matter that the Committee, management, the external auditors or such other persons deems should be discussed privately. Such meetings should offer free and open communications among the Committee, management and external auditors.

Audit Committee Charter

- 5.7 The Committee shall meet with the external and internal auditors at least twice in each financial year without the presence of any executive Board members, management or employees.
- 5.8 The external or internal auditors may request a meeting of the Committee if they consider that one is necessary to consider any matter the external or internal auditors wish to bring to the attention of the Board or shareholders of the Group.
- 5.9 The Committee may regulate its own procedures, in particular on the conduct of the Committee meetings, including attendance at a meeting by being present in person or by participating in the meeting by means of video or teleconference. Such participation in a meeting by means of video or teleconference shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. The Committee should record its deliberations in terms of the issues discussed and the conclusions in discharging its duties and responsibilities, with the minutes kept and distributed to each member of the Committee and of the Board.
- 5.10 A resolution in writing signed (include electronic or digital signature) or approved by letter, electronic mail, telegram, telefax or other electronic communication by all members in lieu of convening a formal meeting shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Committee members.
- 5.11 The Chairman of the Committee should engage on a continuous basis with senior management such as the Chairman of the Board, Group Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer, Head of Finance and the external and internal auditors in order to be kept informed of matters affecting the Group.
- 5.12 The Secretary of the Company or the Head of Corporate Secretarial Affairs shall be the Secretary of the Committee. The Secretary of the Committee shall circulate the minutes of the Committee meetings to all members of the Committee and the Board. The Secretary of the Committee shall ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

6.0 Consultants

The Committee may retain at the Group's expense, at such times and on such terms as the Committee determines at its sole discretion, special legal, accounting or other consultants to advise and assist it in discharging its responsibilities as set forth herein.

7.0 Reporting

- 7.1 The Chairman of the Committee shall report its activities to the Board at each financial quarter meeting and where appropriate in any other manner and time, as it deems necessary.
- 7.2 The Committee shall prepare where applicable, with the assistance of management, the external auditors and external legal counsel (if necessary), a formal report for inclusion in the annual report that must disclose the following:
- 7.2.1 the Committee's composition, including the name, designation (indicating the chairman) and directorship of the members (indicating whether the directors are independent or otherwise);
 - 7.2.2 the number of Committee meetings held during the financial year and the details of attendance of each Committee member and the details of relevant training attended by each Committee member;

Audit Committee Charter

- 7.2.3 a summary of the work of the Committee in discharging its functions and duties for that financial year of the Company and how it has met its responsibilities;
- 7.2.4 the existence of an internal audit function and a summary of its work;
- 7.2.5 the steps taken to ensure the internal and the external auditor's independence; and
- 7.2.6 the amount of audit fees and the amount of non-audit fees incurred by the Company and on a group basis respectively, as well as the details on the nature of the services rendered by auditors and its affiliates if the non-audit fees incurred were significant.

7.3 The Chairman of the Committee should attend the annual general meeting to address queries relating to the Committee's activities and matters within the scope of the Committee's responsibilities.

7.4 When the Committee is of the view that a matter reported by it to the Board has not been satisfactorily resolved resulting in a breach of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities, the Committee must promptly report such matter to Bursa Securities, where applicable.

8.0 Review of Charter

The Committee shall review and reassess, with the assistance of management, the external auditors and external legal counsel (if necessary), the adequacy of the Committee's charter in light of new best practices and new legal or regulatory requirements, every two (2) years or as when necessary and recommend the proposed changes to the Board. The Charter must be made available on the Company's website.

9.0 Annual Self-Assessment Review

The Committee shall conduct a self-assessment to monitor their overall effectiveness in meeting their responsibilities and report the results to the Board at least annually. In particular, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, shall review the term of office and performance of the Committee and each of its members annually to determine whether the Committee has carried out their duties in accordance with this Charter. All such evaluations or assessments should be properly documented.

10.0 Training

The Committee shall be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members to aid its members in the discharge of their duties.

11.0 Rights and Powers of the Committee

In general and unless otherwise expressly authorised by the Board, the Committee shall not have delegated powers from the Board to implement its recommendations but is obliged to report its recommendations to the Board for consideration and implementation.

This Audit Committee Charter is approved by the Board on 29 January 2026.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Appendix 1

Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1: Independence Discussions with Audit Committees

Independence Standards Board Standards are maintained by the US American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA").

Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees applies to any auditor intending to be considered an independent accountant with respect to a specific entity within the meaning of the Security Acts ("the Acts") administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission. At least annually, such an auditor shall:

- (a) disclose to the Committee, in writing, all relationships between the auditor and its related entities and the company and its related entities that in the auditor's professional judgement may reasonably be thought to bear on independence;
- (b) confirm in the letter that, in its professional judgement, it is independent of the Company within the meaning of the Acts; and
- (c) discuss the auditor's independence with the Committee.
