

Whistle Blower Policy

1 Purpose

This policy is intended for Westports Holdings Berhad (“Westports” or “the Company”) and all subsidiary companies within the Westports Group (“the Group”).

All employees of the Group play an important part in maintaining the highest level of corporate ethics within the Group, and have a professional responsibility to disclose any known malpractices or wrongdoings (hereon referred to as “Concerns”).

2 Objective

- Promote and maintain high transparency and accountability in the workplace;
- Promote good corporate governance practices in the workplace;
- Ensure that employees can raise concerns without fear of reprisals and safeguard such person’s confidentiality;
- Protect a whistleblower from reprisal as consequence of making a disclosure;
- Provide a transparent and confidential process for dealing with concerns;
- Protect the long term reputation of the Company;
- Support the Company’s values; and
- Maintain a healthy working culture.

3 Safeguards

A person or entity making a protected disclosure of improper conduct is commonly referred to as a “Whistleblower”. Whistleblowers provide initial information related to a reasonable belief that an improper activity has occurred.

Whistleblowers are protected against being dismissed or penalised or facing other reprisals by the Group in accordance with the Whistleblower Protection Act 2010.

A Whistleblower’s right to protection from retaliation does not extend immunity for any complicity in the matters that are the subject of the allegations or an ensuing investigation. However, the Whistleblower’s report will be considered as a mitigating circumstance if he/she is involved in the activity reported.

4 Harassment or Victimisation

Harassment or victimisation for reporting concerns under this policy will not be tolerated.

Complete protection will be given to Whistle-blower against any unfair practice not limited to retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/ suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle blower's rights to continue to perform his/her duties including making further disclosure.

5 Confidentiality

Every effort will be made to treat the Whistleblower's identity with appropriate regard for confidentiality. The Group gives the assurance that it will not reveal the identity of the Whistleblower to any third party not involved in the investigation or prosecution of the matter. The only exception to this assurance relates to an overriding legal obligation to breach confidentiality, save unless it so required by under the law. The Group is obligated to reveal confidential information relating to a whistle-blowing report, if ordered to do so by a court of law.
