Sexual Harassment at the Workplace Policy

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

1.1 WESTPORTS (hereinafter referred to as “the Group”) strives to create and maintain a work environment in which people are treated with dignity, decency and respect. The environment of the company should be characterized by mutual trust and the absence of intimidation, oppression and exploitation. The Group will not tolerate sexual harassment of any kind. Through enforcement of the Group’s Workplace Sexual Harassment Policy (hereinafter referred to as “the Policy”) and by communicating to employees, the Group will seek to prevent, correct and discipline behaviour that violates this policy in line with the applicable laws and regulations in Malaysia. The Policy should thus be read in conjunction with the Group’s various policies & guidelines. If multiple documents speak of the same subject, then the upmost stringent provision prevails.

The Policy intends to fulfil the requirements set forth in:

- The Code of Practice on the Prevention and Eradication of Sexual Harassment in the Workplace, published in August 1999 by the Ministry of Human Resources, Malaysia (“1999 Code”).
- Part XVA (Sexual Harassment) of the Employment Act 1955.

1.2 The Group shall constantly uphold all laws relating to sexual harassment in all jurisdictions where WHB operates. The Group is bound by the laws of Malaysia, in particular the Penal Code, the Employment Act 1955, the Printing Presses and Publications Act 1984, and the Communications and Multimedia Act 1998.

2.0 SCOPE

2.1 This policy is intended for Westports Holdings Berhad (“WHB”) and all subsidiary companies within the Group. The Policy is applicable to all the Group’s employees (“Personnel”) including directors. All Personnel (whether temporary, contract basis or permanent) must comply with the Policy, the Group’s other policies and procedures and all applicable laws in the course of employment.

2.2 The Policy applies to the Group’s business associates, which includes but not limited to, vendors, contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, trainers, agents, representatives, tenants and other intermediaries who are performing work or services, for and on behalf of the Group. It is the responsibility of all Personnel, regardless of their position or role, to communicate the Policy to their business associates. The Policy applies to all parties that are currently engaged with the Group or have intentions to engage with the Group in the future.

2.3 Sexual harassment can be committed by and can happen to any person or group of persons to whom the Policy applies, regardless of gender (this

3.0 DEFINITION

3.1 Sexual harassment is defined in the 1999 Code as any unwanted, unsolicited and unreciprocated conduct of a sexual nature that takes the form of verbal, non-verbal, visual, psychological or physical harassment:

3.1.1 that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as placing a condition of a sexual nature on her/his employment (“sexual coercion”); or

3.1.2 that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as an offence or humiliation, or a threat to her/his well-being (“sexual annoyance”).

4.0 FORMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

4.1 Examples of sexual harassment include but are not limited to the following:

4.1.1 Verbal: Lewd or suggestive jokes, innuendos, comments, remarks, questions, requests, threats or flirting. This may be oral or in writing.

Sexual Harassment at the Workplace Policy

- 4.2 Sexual harassment can take place at or outside the workplace; before, during or after working hours; in person, or over other forms of media including but not limited to the following:
- 4.2.1 Physical media including printed photographs, letters or moving images or videos displayed on any electronic device;
 - 4.2.2 Phone or video calls;

 - 4.2.4 Posts on social media platforms including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Reddit, etc.

5.0 CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES AND MANAGERS

- 5.1 For the purposes of this section, “Manager” refers to the CEO, Heads of Department, Heads of Section, Managers and any other employee acting in a managerial or supervisory capacity.
- 5.2 The Group strongly discourages relationships between a Manager and any employee who reports directly or indirectly to that Manager. This is to avoid potential conflict of interest, as well as any perception of bias, favouritism, intimidation, coercion or exploitation between the parties.
- 5.3 If any Manager enters into a consensual relationship with an employee reporting directly or indirectly to them or working in the same department as them, the parties must notify the Head of Human Resources immediately. Once the relationship is made known to the Head of Human Resources, the Group will review the situation in light of all the facts and will determine whether one or both parties need to be moved to another department. If it is determined that one party must be moved, and there are jobs in other departments available for both, the parties may decide who will be the one to apply for a new position. If the parties cannot amicably come to a decision, or the party is not chosen for the position to which he or she applied, the Head of Human Resources and senior management will decide which party will be moved. That decision will be based on which move will be least disruptive to the Group as a whole. If no other jobs are available for either party, the parties will be given the option of terminating their relationship or resigning.
- 5.4 This section does not apply to employees who do not work in the same department or where neither party is a Manager.
